

I support the ARRL in there request to remove the Morse code requirement for amateur radio license. Keeping it only for the extra class license.